Imagine a World Without Hate®

ART & ESSAY CONTEST

The Anti-Defamation League and The National WWII Museum announce a special student art and essay contest. In honor of The Anti-Defamation League's Centennial, K-12 students attending a No Place For Hate® school in the South-Central Region (Louisiana, Mississippi, and Arkansas) are invited to join in the celebration.

CONTEST THEME

Imagine a World without Hate®

Students may submit an essay or a work of art that best addresses the following assignment:

Describe or portray your vision of "Imagine a World Without Hate."

CONTEST GUIDELINES

- Students may enter up to one submission in both categories
- All entries must be received by November 4, 2013
- Send entries, with completed entry form attached, to:

ADL Imagine Contest

c/o The Anti-Defamation League
3747 West Esplanade Avenue
Metairie, LA 70002

- Participating schools may send all of their entries together

ESSAY CATEGORY GUIDELINES

- Entrants must submit an original and unpublished essay. The essay must be solely the work of the entrant.
- Other forms of creative written expression, including poems and short stories, that are within the guidelines will also be accepted.
- The essay must be typed in 12-point Times New Roman font, double spaced, and printed on 8.5" x 11" unlined paper with 1.0" margins.
- The essay must be written in English.
- The essay must not exceed 800 words/two pages.
- The entrant's name, school, and city should not appear anywhere on the essay pages.
- Entrants must complete an entry form and staple it to the front of their essay. The entry form must be complete, including the parent's/guardian's signature.
- Teachers may submit entries for students; however, to qualify, each student must include a completed entry form stapled to the front of his or her own essay.

ART CATEGORY GUIDELINES

- Entrants must submit an original, unpublished work of 2D media. Video cannot be accepted, nor can 3D art. No glitter, please. Art should be 11" x 14".
- Art submissions may be in one or more of the following media: painting (watercolor, acrylic, ink, oil, or other), drawing, collage, print (including silk-screens and lithographs), and photography (black and white or color).
- It is recommended that art submissions be mounted before mailing, but it is not required. Art should be mailed flat (no binders or tubes).
- The entrant's name, school, and city should not appear anywhere on the artwork.
- Entrants must submit, along with their artwork, a one-paragraph typed explanation of what their artwork represents. The entrant's name, school, and city should not appear anywhere on the paragraph.
- Entrants must complete an entry form and securely clip it to the front of their artwork. The entry form must be complete, including the parent's/guardian's signature.
- Teachers may submit entries for students; however, to qualify, each student must include a completed entry form stapled to the front of the art.

JUDGING GUIDELINES

- Each entry will be evaluated by a panel of judges. Entry forms will be removed during the judging process to ensure that judging is based solely on the merits of the essay or artwork.
- Students will be entered into one of these four groups: K-2; 3-5; 6-8; or 9-12.
- There will be three winners from each category: three essays and three art submissions from each group.
- Essays will be judged on content, clarity, creativity, originality, conciseness, organization, and correct grammar and spelling appropriate to the entrant's grade level.
- Artwork will be judged on originality, creativity, design, and interpretation of the theme appropriate to the entrant's grade level.
- The decision of the judges is final.
- Once the judging has been completed, entry forms will be reattached to winning essays and artwork. Winners will be notified directly as will their school.
